Virtual Medicine in 2023: A panel discussion to explore legal, medical, and practical perspectives

Presented by

Dr. Louis Tramontozzi North Shore Neurology
Dr. Joseph Peppe Medical Director Northeast PHO
Chad Brouillard Esq Foster & Eldridge

Objectives

Understand the leveraging power that tele-medicine can deliver for patient care, to prevent burnout for physicians and advanced practice providers, and to creatively address staffing issues in a community practice.

Review the advantages and disadvantages of telehealth as it relates to the current and future of private health plan and public payer value-based contracting.

Avoid common legal and regulatory pitfalls associated with telehealth use.
